Illustrated Charter of PEDESTRIAN RIGHTS
Who is the pedestrian?

Any person who walks in public space:
- People with disabilities
- Children
- Older People
- Women
- Men

What is public space?
It is the space open to all citizenship regardless of creed, gender, race, ethnicity, physical condition, sexuality or appearance.
As pedestrians we have the right to:

- Cross the street calmly and safely.
- A city that fits my needs.
- Adequate public transportation services.
- Organized urban centers.
- Socialize in public spaces.
- Play in the streets.
- Suitable street furniture.
- Spacious sidewalks.
- A healthy environment and enjoyment of the space.
- Walk calmly on the street.

LIGA PERSONAL
edgars eis
illustration & design
Charter of Pedestrian Rights
2016

D.R. © Illustrations: Edgar Seis
http://www.edgarseis.com
@edgarseis

D.R. © Text: Pedestrian League
This project is the illustrated version of the Mexican Charter of Pedestrian Rights, produced by the Pedestrian League, available at bit.ly/DerechosPeatonMx
@ligapeatonal

This work is licensed under Creative Commons Attribution ShareAlike 4.0 International and is free to be copied and redistributed in any medium and format. It can be mixed, transformed and can be used to create derivative works from the material for any purpose, including commercially. These liberties are irrevocable provided the original authorship is properly credited, a link to the license is included, changes are indicated and the derivative work is distributed under the same license.

Written and illustrated by:

LIGA PEATONAL
edgarseis
illustration & design

Printed and/or modified by: